Kia Ora Saints:

Willie Nelson's words ring true when he sang, "I'm On The Road Again." The road is long, but God's people are ever so gracious. A special thank you is in order for the Lord's churches in the Houston area and the rest of Texas. They have been so loving and they have treated me in "Princely fashion. For a tired missionary blessings seem to abound around every corner. God is so sweet.....and so are His people. Until next month, God bless you Saints.

In His love,
Brother Max
